

29 April 1944

Dear Bryant Service Club Members, Thanks very much for the Easter package. It was a bit late in getting to me; but,
"Better late than never." It was a surprise, and a very pleasing one.

After graduating from the Army Administration School in Fargo, North Dakota, I was assigned to the 325th Fighter Squadron at Richmond, Virginia.
After a month, I was transferred to my present unit.

I wish to congratulate you on your fine work. Keep it up.

Sincerely
